

Curriculum Young Learners – Movers A1

Overview:

A topic based curriculum to motivate children to communicate confidently in English.

Objectives:

To continue to develop the four language skills: listening, reading, writing and speaking, through familiar topics and situations, which are motivating for students and enable confident communication.

Preparation for Young Learners A1 Movers exam is targeted at Level A1 on the CEFR (Common European Framework in Language skills). Achieving a certificate at this level proves that a candidate can use English to communicate in simple situation.

Language objectives:

- Present simple
- Past simple
- Present continuous
- Comparatives
- Superlatives
- Connectors
- Questions
- Adjectives
- Prepositions
- Determiners
- Adverbs of frequency

Communication objectives:

- To ask for and give personal information
- To describe people and objects
- To describe places
- The weather

- Hobbies
- To develop short dialogues
- To talk about students preferences, feelings and to give opinions.

Materials:

- Cambridge Student's Book

Exam information:

- Full name: Young Learner Movers
- Examination Board: Cambridge English Language Assessment
- Language: British English
- CEFR: Level: A1
- Official Certification: Diploma issued by University of Cambridge, United Kingdom.